

The voyage of the First Fleet to Australia is one of the greatest stories ever told.

Thirteen hundred and fifty people crammed into eleven small ships and sailed halfway around the world on a voyage that took eight months and one week to complete.

The Voyage of the First Fleet