

26 JANUARY 1789 We have been here for one year. Our supplies are dangerously low, and too many settlers have died in this harsh land. However the relief ships from England should be here soon as will the SIRIUS — At least that's something to look forward to!

