

28 JANUARY 1788 All marines and male convicts left the ships and made a camp ashore. The females were kept on board until further ground was cleared.

